

FACTSHEET

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS

PURPOSE (State Constitution)

The Office of Hawaiian Affairs (OHA) was established to hold title to all real and personal property to be held in trust for native Hawaiians and Hawaiians. (Article XII, Section 5)

The Board of Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs was created to manage and administer the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of the lands, natural resources, minerals, and income derived from whatever sources for native Hawaiians and Hawaiians, including all income and proceeds from that pro rata portion of the trust referred to in the State Constitution, Article XII, section 4, for native Hawaiians. The board also formulates policy relating to the affairs of native Hawaiians and Hawaiians and exercises control over real personal property set aside by state, federal, or private sources and transferred to the board for native Hawaiians and Hawaiians. (Article XII, Section 6)

The board exercises control over the Office of Hawaiian Affairs through its executive officer, the administrator of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, who is appointed by the board. (Article XII, Section 6)
